During the year ended December 31, 2017, FOLA operated the following programs:

(i) A L'Arche Home in the Oakhurst neighborhood of Decatur

L'Arche Atlanta's first home, opened in 2012, has a double identity: first and foremost, the members of the home are simply human beings sharing life together, with and without disabilities, building community together. The home's second identity is that of a professional provider of residential services for adults with developmental disabilities. As such, the home is a licensed "Community Residential Alternative" with the State of Georgia's Department of Developmental Disabilities, and this partnership provides for around 45% of the home's funding through available public funding.

(ii)Outreach - Building Community through Social Events

Since January 2010, in partnership with several local faith communities, FOLA has been hosting social events for people with and without intellectual disabilities.

bingo, talent night or movie night. An average of 100 people attends the gatherings. In 2017, over 550 different people attended these gatherings, including over 50 individuals with intellectual disabilities. The purpose of the evenings is to come together to have fun, to celebrate the unique value of each person, and build relationships of friendship and support.

(iii)Outreach - Through Announcing the Gifts of Adults with Intellectual Disabilities Part of the L'Arche mission involves announcing the gifts that adults with intellectual disabilities bring to our societies, thereby inviting people to initiatives of inclusion and mutual relationships within their own communities. In 2017, FOLA, in partnership with the Georgia Council on Developmental Disabilities, began work on a Storytelling Project. The goal of the project is to educate and influence legislators around issues that affect Georgians with disabilities through their stories and photographs. The GCDD Storytelling Project aims to collect 75 stories representing the experience of individuals living with a developmental disability in Georgia. This collection of stories and pictures will include at least one individual from each of Georgia's 56 State Senate Districts. L'Arche will be collecting stories to support GCDD's efforts to amplify the voices and stories of people with developmental disabilities in Georgia.
